

THE MARIA ROGERS
Oral History Program
OF THE CARNEGIE BRANCH LIBRARY FOR LOCAL HISTORY

The Maria Rogers
Oral History Digital Archive

Key Features:

- Full summaries and transcripts available online.
- Streaming audio of complete interviews available.
- Summaries and transcripts are word-searchable.
- Once audio is 100% loaded, listeners using Windows may "jump" to a chosen section of audio by clicking on the blue time-indexing numbers.
- Fully integrated into the Boulder Public Library computer catalog: boulderlibrary.org. Users may search for interviews through the catalog, then link directly from the catalog entry to an interview's summary or transcript and audio.

Step-by-Step Instructions:

1. Use a computer with an internet connection that is faster than dial-up (for example, a DSL or cable connection). Go to: www.boulderlibrary.org/oralhistory
2. If you know the name of the person whose interview you want to hear, click on that name in the alphabetical list in the blue frame (on the left) to listen to the interview and/or read the summary or transcript.
3. To see a list of thematic collections of interviews, click on the yellow "Special Collections" button (top right). Choose a collection from the blue box on the left. You can read abstracts of interviews and connect to interviews of interest from the special collections page.
4. If you don't know which interview you want to hear, click on the "Library Catalog" button at the top of the home page, then type in the name or topic of interest plus the words "oral history." Press "Submit" to get a list of relevant oral history catalog entries. Click on an entry and choose "full record" to see more detail.
5. When you find a catalog page about an oral history you would like to hear, click on the words "Click here to access on-line audio of interview" to go directly to the interview's page on the oral history Web site.

To access the oral history digital archive, go to: www.boulderlibrary.org/oralhistory